CR3101 Series

Posiflex CR3100 Cash Drawer Series

The CR3100 Series cash drawer has a patented screw-less tamper-resistant design for added security. It also has a special feature that cushions drawer slams reducing vibration to surrounding electronic devices. With durable metal construction, the CR3100 Series is a low profile, compact drawer with high reliability and strength. The coin and bill compartments are adjustable and a locking tray cover is available. A 3-position key lock provides additional security and convenience.
